Songs & Lyrics

“Clothes Song” by Peter Weatherall

Let's take some socks and a shirt
and hang them out on the washing line.

They won't take very long to dry
'cause today the weather's fine.

Dearie, dearie me, it's such a windy day.
The socks and shirt have blown away.

Let's take some shorts and a skirt
and hang them out on the washing line.

They won't take very long to dry
'cause today the weather's fine.

Dearie, dearie me, it's such a windy day.
The shorts and skirt have blown away.

Let's take a tee-shirt and some jeans
and hang them out on the washing line.

They won't take very long to dry
'cause today the weather's fine.

Dearie, dearie me, it's such a windy day.
The tee-shirt and jeans have blown away.

Let's take a dress that's purple and green and hang it out on the washing line.

It won't take very long to dry

'cause today the weather's fine.

Dearie, dearie me, it's such a windy day.

Now the dress has blown away.

Where are the socks? And the shirt?
Where are the shorts? And the skirt?
Where is the tee-shirt? And the jeans?
Where is the dress that's purple and
green?

Dearie, dearie me, they're stuck up in the tree.

Can you tell me all the clothes you see?

There are the socks and the shirt.
There are the shorts and the skirt.
There is the tee-shirt and the jeans.
There is the dress that's purple and
green.
